105-TH MEETING
INTERNATIONAL YOUTH
LEADER COMMISSION

PLOVDIV – BULGARIA

18-20 October

SHORT PRESENTATION OF PLOVDIV

- Plovdiv is the second-largest city in Bulgaria, with a city population of 346,893 as of 2018 and 675,000 in the greater metropolitan area.
- Plovdiv is the economic capital of Bulgaria. It is an important economic, transport, cultural, and educational center.
- There is evidence of habitation in Plovdiv dating back to the 6th millennium BCE, when the first Neolithic settlements were established.
- It has been considered to be one of the oldest cities in the world; however, archaeological excavations in 2016 and 2017 have shown that this may not be the case.

- During most of its recorded history, Plovdiv was known in the West by the name Philippopolis (Greek: Φιλιππούπολις; Turkish: Filibe; "Philip's Town") after Philip II of Macedon conquered the city in the 4th century BCE. The city was originally a Thracian settlement and subsequently was invaded by Persians, Greeks, Celts, Romans, Goths, Huns, Bulgars, Slavs, Rus people, Crusaders, and Turks.

- Plovdiv is situated in a fertile region of south-central Bulgaria on the two banks of the Maritsa River. The city has historically developed on seven syenite hills, some of which are 250 metres (820 feet) high. Because of these hills, Plovdiv is often referred to in Bulgaria as "The City of the Seven Hills".
- There are many preserved ruins such as the ancient Plovdiv Roman theatre, a Roman odeon, a Roman aqueduct, the Plovdiv Roman Stadium, the archaeological complex Eirene, and others.

ON 5 SEPTEMBER 2014, PLOVDIV WAS SELECTED AS THE BULGARIAN HOST OF THE EUROPEAN CAPITAL OF CULTURE 2019
